Q16 - Do you think the LLM powered dialogue was more useful than the scripted dialogue when trying to figure out the murder case? (strongly disagree, disagree, agree, strongly agree + why)
Agree. Because it allowed for more variety of respoonses based on what I ask

Q17 - Would you buy a game with LLM powered NPCs as a core part of the conversations? (yes, no, maybe + why)
Yes. Given the changing nature of responses I can get (as compared to static scripts)

Q18 – Do you prefer one version over the other? Why?
I prefer the LLM version for the novelty

Q19 – What felt confusing, unnatural, or frustrating when talking to the NPCs for both versions?
The script for the normal dialogue version was ordered to better guide the player while the LLM required additional thinking to direct the conversation which may lead a player to miss parts of the script.

Q20 - Anything else you want to add?
No
